January 28, 2020

Please view the following updates from the Department of Anesthesiology.

- Anesthesia Cart Redesign - Input Needed!
  - Please contact Dr. Rice at mark.j.rice@vumc.org if you have any questions or trouble logging in.

- Upcoming Changes: Ketamine Infusions and Phenylephrine Infusions
  - On Monday, Jan. 27, 2020, phenylephrine infusion concentration changed from 30mg/250ml to 25mg/250ml.
  - Please fill out this five minute survey. We hope to use this survey to improve anesthesia cart organization and availability.

- The ICMJE has proposed a new disclosure form to better address financial and other potential conflicts of interest when submitting a manuscript for publication. The new form will be available here. The International Committee of Medical Journal Editors (ICMJE) will consider comments received by April 30, 2020, before finalizing and adopting a revised version. In the interim, the existing "ICMJE Form for the Disclosure of Potential Conflicts of Interest" remains in use and is available here.

- Summer Student Research Projects
  - The faculty member who assumes this role will work with Dr. Sandberg and Dr. Rice to augment our recruitment and education in all of their combinations. Devoting a directorship to this task highlights its importance.
