Please help us recognize good work when we see it and encourage our colleagues to recommend our next GEM. Do you know a colleague who demonstrates outstanding clinical performance, saves a life, makes a significant contribution to a project, or just goes above and beyond in their daily duties? Please send us an email at GEM@VUMC.EDU with all the details!

Press Coverage and Publications

New Hires: Faculty

On Wednesday, Aug. 28, we released a new feature that enables anesthesia intraoperative teams to enter notes before the end of the case. The notes are immediately viewable in the Preprocedure 'Banner' section, the 'Prior Anesthesia' section, and in the 'I Note' button of the anesthesia record in chart review. Your note will be viewable in the Preprocedure 'Banner' section, the 'Prior Anesthesia' section, and in the 'I Note' button of the anesthesia record in chart review. To enter a note, click the "I Note" button in the anesthesia record in chart review.

On Wednesday, Sept. 4, the Brief Operative Note automatically imported inputs/outputs (I/Os) from anesthesia documentation. You should no longer have to give your surgical colleagues I/O information during emergence!

An update to the Link to SurveyVitals to view Scores and Alerts has been made. Please make sure to have your fluids charted before the end of the case so that accurate information is imported, and please make sure to have your I/O information charted before the end of the case so that accurate information is imported.
