

Vanderbilt house staff— Exclusive program for guaranteed issue individual disability insurance

Vanderbilt GME is pleased to offer an exclusive program for our trainees. Your earning potential is your most valuable asset, and it's vital to protect that income in case an injury or illness prevents you from working for an extended period of time.

Your current group long-term disability coverage is a start, but that coverage will end when your training ends. The GME Guaranteed Issue program can protect more of your income and continue to provide benefits when you leave training at Vanderbilt.

Coverage highlights

- No medical underwriting – no exams, labs, medical questions or medical records
- Fully portable when you leave Vanderbilt
- Competitive discounted gender neutral rates – saves female physicians up to 40-45%
- Benefit can be increased in the future to $15,000 a month (income verification required)
