VANDERBILT UNIVERSITY POLICE DEPARTMENT

Vanderbilt University Police Department (VUPD) provides comprehensive law enforcement and security services to Vanderbilt University, including the academic campus, VUMC, and Vanderbilt Health at One Hundred Oaks, and Vanderbilt Wilson County Hospital. and a variety of Vanderbilt University-owned facilities throughout Davidson County

Vanderbilt University Police officers have the same authority as municipal law enforcement officers while on property owned by Vanderbilt and VUMC, on adjacent public streets and sidewalks, and in surrounding neighborhoods.

To report an emergency, dial 911 to contact the Metropolitan Nashville Emergency Communications Center. A trained dispatcher will then direct the appropriate response to the emergency and notify the VUPD. For non-emergency calls to VUPD, dial (615) 322-2745. For more information about the department, programs and services go to <https://publicsafety.vanderbilt.edu>.

VandySafe Application Services

VUPD provides a variety of resources for safety and security around Vanderbilt University and Vanderbilt University Medical Center. Those services are found on the VandySafe App. VandyRide shuttle bus services are also available.
