

Start Disciplinary Action for Employee

VUMC Managers start a Disciplinary Action for an employee in Workday. The process is triggered when an investigation and review of employee misconduct has been determined. The manager determines the appropriate disciplinary action with the HR Business Partner, if necessary. Follow the steps below to start a Disciplinary Action for Employee task in Workday.

From the Workday Homepage:

1. Type Start Disciplinary Action for Employee into the search bar.
2. Select the Start Disciplinary Action for Employee Task.
3. Next to Employee, type the name of the employee or select the prompt icon to choose an employee from a list.
4. Select the prompt icon next to Review Template and choose the appropriate option from the menu based on the violation.
5. Select the prompt icon next to Disciplinary Action Reasons and choose Reasons for Employee's Country from the Menu. Then select the appropriate option from the next menu that appears.

Note: If there is a previous related action on file, you can select it using the Related Disciplinary Actions field.

6. Choose today's date as the Period Start Date.
 7. Select the Period End Date. In most cases, this will be 12 months from the start date.
 8. Select Submit.
 9. A confirmation screen will appear. Select Open.
- Note: This can also be found in My Tasks.
10. Select Get Started to begin the Manager Evaluation.

From the Manager Evaluation:

As you complete the Manager Evaluation, fill in the details as required for each section. Ensure that you have consulted with your HR Business Partner on language and details to include and not to include on this form. All of the information you include on this form, including attachments, will be visible to the employee.

1. Select Next to begin the Manager Evaluation.
2. Under Description of Issue, type a response to each question.
3. Select Next.
4. Under Expectation(s) for Resolution, type a response to each question.
5. Select Next.
6. Under Supporting Documents, attach any relevant documents by clicking Select Files.
7. Select Next.
8. Review the Manager Evaluation by scrolling down. Select Submit when finished.

Note: Written/Final and Terminations will route to HR for approval and need to be approved before the leader proceeds to the conversation with the employees. Verbal warnings are not routed to HR for review.

From Complete To Do:

1. The next step in this process is to have a conversation with the employee. After this conversation, you will Complete the To Do item that appears in your Tasks. You can add a comment to this regarding the conversation and select Submit.

Note: The employee will be able to view the entirety of the Disciplinary Action after submission.

2. The next portion will appear after you have completed the conversation with the employee. You will provide Manager Review Comments for the Disciplinary Action. Select Get Started.

3. Review the Summary of the Manager Review by scrolling down. Select Next to continue.

4. Under Acknowledgment, select whether you would like to Acknowledge with Comments or Acknowledge without Comments using the field next to Status. Depending on your response, you can type an optional comment.

5. Select Submit.

Note: This will act as a signature. The employee will also complete this step.
