

VANDERBILT UNIVERSITY MEDICAL CENTER
Division of Continuing Medical Education
Agreement to Exhibit

Both parties agree to abide by all requirements of the ACCME's Accreditation Requirements, the ACCME Standards for Commercial Support, and the Policy on Conflicts of Interest and Interactions between the Health Care Industry and Personnel of the Vanderbilt University Medical Center and its Affiliated Entities. Specifically:

Exhibits will be allowed off campus only and should be educational in nature.

Educational materials that might be made available to course participants include information about new medical equipment and/or devices, clinical trials investigating drugs relevant to the topic of the course, and scientific efficacy studies. The materials should be free of company logos, if possible. Special effects such as flashing lights and audio enhancements will not be permitted.

The distribution of drug and other samples is not permitted. Personal gifts from health care industry representatives, regardless of the nature or value of the gift, shall not be offered or made available to participants at educational activities provided by Vanderbilt; this includes, but is not limited to, pens, notepads, coffee mugs, key chains, and all other marketing items.

Distribution of items reportable under the Physician Payments Sunshine Act is strictly prohibited.

One representative per exhibit is encouraged, although there are circumstances when two or more representatives may be required. Marketing/sales representatives are prohibited from attending educational activities provided by Vanderbilt University School of Medicine.

Exhibit space at this CME activity has not and will not be given as a condition of commercial support. An exhibit fee is for rental of space and shall be paid to the responsible organization, department or division. Fees may be waived for non-profit, non-commercial exhibitors only.
