

PAY TO THE ORDER OF

You

up to $8,000 per year for tuition charges ($24,000 maximum)*

MEMO eligibility and requirements apply*

VanderbiltNursing.com

VANDERBILT UNIVERSITY
MEDICAL CENTER

NURSING TUITION ASSISTANCE BENEFIT

One of the perks of being a VUMC Nurse!

Interested in going back to school to further your nursing career goals? Vanderbilt University Medical Center offers a combination of two tuition benefits to help you:

- The Human Resources (HR) Tuition Benefit
- Nursing Tuition Assistance Benefit (NTAB)

The Nursing Tuition Assistance Benefit (NTAB) covers up to $8,000 of tuition charges per fiscal year (not to exceed a total of $24,000) for full-time employees enrolled in accredited BSN and MSN programs.

Participants are required to use the HR benefit for one class each semester and then the remaining classes for the semester will be covered by the NTAB up to the maximum.

NTAB covers:

- + One degree during employment at VUMC
- + Bachelor's or Master's Degree in Nursing

NTAB does not cover:

- Books or fees
- Doctoral studies

NTAB ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

- Employed at VUMC a minimum of three continuous full-time years at the time of applying for the NTAB;
- Be employed full time (minimum 30 hours per week) and remain in good standing (not on a performance improvement plan) while receiving the NTAB;
- Be accepted into a degree-seeking program in Nursing (BSN or MSN) in a program of study accredited by the Accreditation Commission for Education in Nursing (ACEN) and/or the Commission on Collegiate Nursing Education (CCNE) and is approved by Tennessee State board of Nursing.

For complete details and to start your application, visit:

VANDERBILTURSING.COM

Click the "Professional Development" tab and look for Nursing Tuition Assistance Benefit on the left side.

Questions? Contact Us:
NursingTuition@Vanderbilt.edu

NTAB is managed by VUMC's Department of Nursing Education and Professional Development