

Director, Division of Psychology

We are seeking a clinical psychologist to serve as Director of the Division of Psychology in the Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences at Vanderbilt University Medical Center. The Division of Psychology is home to more than 25 clinical and research psychologists, who provide a wide range of clinical services and conduct cutting-edge basic and clinical research. The division is committed to training and has a nationally-recognized APA-accredited clinical psychology internship and an APPIC-approved postdoctoral fellowship program. The Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences is committed to building a culturally diverse faculty and strongly encourages applications from minorities and members of other underrepresented groups.

The position will be at the rank of Associate Professor or Full Professor. The successful candidate will have a history of leadership excellence and a strong research portfolio. Eligibility for licensure in the state of Tennessee as a Health Service Provider is preferred.

Vanderbilt University Medical Center is consistently ranked as one of the top US academic medical centers. Vanderbilt University Medical Center offers an attractive benefits package and competitive salaries. Nashville is a fast growing and diverse city, with an affordable housing market, many extracurricular opportunities, in a beautiful and temperate climate.

For additional information about the Division of Psychology visit:

<https://www.vumc.org/psychiatry/psychology-division>

For further information about the Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences visit:

<https://www.vumc.org/psychiatry/>

Applicants should submit a CV and letter of interest to Jennye Laws-Woolf, Assistant to the Chair, Department of Psychiatry and Behavioral Sciences at jennye.woolf@vumc.org

