

Which clinical situation is most consistent with dissociative amnesia?

- A. 67 yr old woman with reported long term declining memory. She has poor short term recall, but remembers testable historic facts.
- B. 48 yr old man says he lost his memory after he hit his head at work. He cannot recite name, address, date, serial 7's, or mother's name.
- C. 77 yr old male with sudden onset amnesia for last two hours. Remembers biographical information but is unable to retain new information.
- D. 34 yr old woman with a history of depression and anxiety. She does not remember her childhood during ages 9-13. She does well on cognitive testing.

What is the general goal of treatment during therapy with a patient with Dissociative Identity Disorder?

- A. Establishment of a traumatic event
- B. Treatment of depression and anxiety
- C. Adherence to antipsychotic medication
- D. Integration of personality
- E. Defining boundaries of the alters