Vanderbilt Radiology’s Office Of Diversity, Equity & Inclusion

OUR MISSION:
To foster a department that embraces diversity of backgrounds, experiences and perspectives as a stimulus for:
• innovation and problem solving
• achieving excellence in education, research and scholarship
• achieving equity in patient care

“Our diversity enhances empathy, quality of ideas and decision-making, which in turn advance radiology and improve patient care.”
- Dr. Reed Omary
Radiology Chairman

VUMC RESOURCES

Annual Diversity Grand Rounds
Cultural Proficiency Seminars
Women in Radiology Group

Minority House-staff for Academic and Medical Advancement
VUMC-wide Diversity Resident Groups
Program for LGBTI Health

CONTACT US
stephanie.spottswood@vanderbilt.edu  @VUMCradiology
vumc.org/radiology/diversity-equity-and-inclusion

WOMEN IN RADIOLOGY

39% of Vanderbilt radiologists are female*
20% are full professors
13% are department leaders

*ACR data states the national average is 21%
AAMC data states the national average is 14%
ACR data states the national average is 8%

OUR VISION:
To be a culturally diverse, inclusive and welcoming environment for trainees, faculty and staff, who are equipped to provide excellent care to a diverse patient population.

DIAGONSTIC RADIOLOGY RESIDENCY PROGRAM

URM Radiology Residents

ACGME 4yr average
Vanderbilt Residents 2016-17 2017-18 2018-19
8% 9% 13% 16%

Over 85% of our residents go on to complete a fellowship at top universities across the country.

*ACR data states the national average is 21%
AAMC data states the national average is 14%
ACR data states the national average is 8%