Intraoral Photography

The purpose of this study is to test the validity of methods for intraoral photography in order to diagnose conditions of the palate.

- Aim 1: To determine the validity of intraoral photography through patient positioning, distance, aperture, speed, resolution, and illumination

- Aim 2: Calculate inter-rater reliability and accuracy and determine the validity of intraoral photography using the studied parameters