

HCRN Shunt Quality Improvement Protocol

- In April 2013, the Vanderbilt Pediatric Neurosurgery department, along with the OR staff, implemented a shunt quality improvement protocol. The purpose of this protocol is to standardize perioperative and operative points across surgeons in an effort to reduce the overall institutional shunt infection rate. Patients undergoing all shunt procedures are placed on the protocol and tracked over time.