

SICU Resident Work Hours Policy: Resident Responsibilities

Appropriate limitations to resident work hours are critical. Each resident is to have one day off in seven and to work no more than an average of 80 hours per week over a four week period. The SICU team puts considerable effort into ensuring that this is possible. If after reviewing the schedule, or at any time during rotation, you identify potential problems with complying with this policy, please notify Dr. May immediately.

Signature

Date

My signature above indicates that I have read, understand, and agree with the above statement.