About our Speakers

Abby Luffman

MSN, APRN, AGACNP, CCRN

Luffman has 13 years' experience in Trauma and CCRN since 2008. Currently, she works as a Nurse Practitioner for the Trauma Unit at Vanderbilt University Medical Center.

Carmen Mauldin

BSN, RN, CCRN-K

Mauldin is a Director for Clinical Education & Professional Development at Vanderbilt University Medical Center and an active member of the American Association of Critical Care Nurses. She has over 10 years of nursing experience in a variety of clinical areas including post-surgical acute care, acute care medicine, medical-surgical ICU and cardiovascular intensive care.

Lindsey Netzel

MSN, RN, CCRN, FCCS

Netzel has 9 years of nursing experience MICU, renal transplant and nephrology unit, cardiac cath lab, organ donation and donor management, and CCRN since 2009. She is currently the nursing education specialist for the Medical Intensive Care Unit and Palliative Care Unit at Vanderbilt University Medical Center.

Michaella Keyes

BSN, RN, CCRN

Keyes currently works at Vanderbilt as a staff nurse in the Medical Intensive Care Unit. She has worked there for over the last two years and received her CCRN certification this past year. She worked at UT Medical Center Knoxville in their orthopedic-trauma unit before coming to Vanderbilt. I am currently enrolled as a full time student in TTU-ETSU's dual AG-ACNP DNP program.
