

HANDS ON

A SAFETY & COMPETENCY VENUE

Tuesday, June 9 &
Wednesday, June 10, 2020

Langford Auditorium Lobby

7:00am to 6:00pm
(check-in ends at 5:00pm)

stations	mock code (adult only)  A group simulation of an adult resuscitation scenario	restraints  Required for staff who initiate, monitor, and/or remove a restraint OR any staff providing direct care for a patient in a restraint	point of care testing  Offered for blood glucose testing renewal only	n-95 respirator annual re-fit testing  In an effort to conserve N-95 respirator use for patient care, the decision has been made to TEMPORARILY suspend the annual competency requirement associated with N-95 until respirator supplies are available
sessions begin	on the hour and half hour	on the hour and half hour	rolling start times
	~ 1 hour Last session: 5pm	~ 30 minutes Offered on even years only	~ 15 minutes Last session: 5:30pm
additional stations	 occupational health	 health plus	 emergency preparedness & response	 safe patient handling
	 health requirements Ensure your vaccines, immunizations, and TB Skin Test are up-to-date   tb skin test skills verification/certification Before attending Hands On, complete the LMS TB Skin Test Bundle (including test) and bring the printable certificate to the Occupational Health Station	 know your numbers Blood pressure, weight, and BMI	 med sled demos (both days: 7am-9am) - Demonstration - Video (6 minutes)	 maxi move only (both days)
Questions? Contact: Sydney Whisenant at sydney.l.hale@vumc.org Sheryl Jackson at sheryl.a.jackson@vumc.org				